

A Publication of the American Bar Association
<http://www.abanet.org/statelocal/pubs/5330067.html>

Ethical Standards in the Public Sector
A Guide for Government Lawyers, Clients and Public Officials

Patricia E. Salkin, Editor

This new book is a compilation of essays, articles, and research intended to help government lawyers, their clients, and other public officials focus on some of the ethical considerations that arise in the practice of law in the public sector. It provides a well-written, clearly presented overview of many of the complexities of public sector ethics, including post-employment restrictions on government employees, whistle-blowing, pro bono work, regulation of honoraria, royalties and travel reimbursements, financial disclosure filing requirements, gift giving, conflicts of interest, and issues in enforcement of local ethics law. Written by some of the best minds addressing government ethics issues today, the guide is a valuable source of thoughts, ideas, suggestions and questions on public office, public service, and the public trust.

Table of Contents

Chapter 1: Ethics, Lawyers, and the Public Sector: A Historic Overview

By John D. Feerick

Early History

Federal Efforts

State Efforts

The Future of Government Ethics Legislation

Chapter 2: Who is the Client of the Government

Lawyer? by Jeffrey Rosenthal

Public Sector Practice

Identifying Potential "Clients" Hypothetically

The Public as the Client

Chapter 3: Postemployment Restrictions on Government Employees: Closing the "Revolving Door"

by George F. Carpinello

The Ban on Appearances Before a Former Employee's Agency

The Ban on Involvement in Matters Handled While in Government

Restricting the Use of Confidential Information

Using One's Public Position to Obtain Private Employment

The Limitations Imposed by Professional Codes of Responsibility

Chapter 4: Doing the Right Thing? Financial Disclosure Filing Requirements for Government Employees

by Barbara Smith

Current Requirements

What's Next?

Should Consultants Be Required to Disclose?

Privatization Implications

Results of Nationwide Survey

Chapter 5: The Pitfalls and Pratfalls of Regulating Honoraria, Royalties, and Travel Reimbursements

by Thea Hoeth

"What Are You Going to Say?"

What Constitutes an "Honorarium"?

What is the Subject Matter of the Speech, Writing, or Appearance?

What Exceptions Are There to Limits on Honoraria for Work-Related Activities?

Does It Matter Who Is Offering the Honorarium?

Should the Same Rules Apply Equally to All in Public Service?

Some Honoraria May Be Subject to Case-by-Case Reviews

What Are the Appropriate Penalties for Transgressions?

United States v. National Treasury Employees Union et al.

Chapter 6: Pro Bono & the Government Lawyer

by Kathleen Waits

Defining Pro Bono and Why We Need It

Getting a Government Pro Bono Program Started

How Much Control Over the Pro Bono Program Does the Government Office Want?

Common Obstacles to Government Pro Bono - And How to Overcome Them

What Can Government Lawyers Do If a Pro Bono Program Neither Exists Nor Is Likely?

Institutionalizing Government Pro Bono

The Personal and Institutional Rewards of Pro Bono Appendices

Chapter 7: Considering Ethics at the Local Government Level

by Mark Davies

Sources of Local Government Ethics Laws

Code of Ethics

Restrictions on Private Citizens and Companies

Disclosure

Enforcement

Administration

Confidentiality

Chapter 8: Whistleblower Law and Ethics

by Robert T. Begg

The Controversial Nature of Whistleblowing

The At-Will Employment Doctrine

Statutory Protection for Public Sector Whistleblowers

Statutory Protections for Whistleblowers at the Federal and State Levels

Federal Whistleblower and Antiretaliation Provisions Outside the Merit System

Financial Incentives for Whistleblowing

Common-Law Protections for Whistleblowers

Professional Ethics Codes as Sources of Public Policy

Special Issues Encountered by Lawyers

The In-House Counsel's Dilemma

The Law Firm Corollary to the In-House Counsel Dilemma

Whistleblowing and the Federal Government Lawyer

Appendix: State Whistleblower Provisions

Chapter 9: Gift Giving in the Public Sector

by Richard Rifkin

What is the Right Rule?

Developing a Relationship Through Gifts

Why Not a Total Ban?

How to Distinguish Among Gifts Guidelines

Chapter 10: Conflicts of Interest

by Hugh B. Weinberg

Prohibited Interests

Prohibited Conduct Generally

Waivers and Orders Allowing Otherwise Prohibited Interests

Working for Not-for-Profit Organizations and Other Volunteer Activities

Representing Private Interests Before the Government

General Practice of Law

Chapter 11: Enforcement of Local Ethics Law

by Joan R. Salzman

Advice versus Enforcement

Complaints

Who Investigates?

Jurisdiction Over Former Government Employees

Confidentiality

Probable Cause, Petition, and Answer

Discovery

Trial

Settlement

"Commingling" of Adjudicative and Prosecutorial Functions

Penalties

Cooperation with Other Law Enforcement Agencies v Appendices: Disposition of COIB v. Sergio Matos; Draft Allocution for Guilty Plea to Violation of Chapter 68 of the City Charter

Appendices

Select Articles Recently Published by the ABA Section on State and Local Government Law
State Ethics Commissions/Agencies

Select Bibliography

Resources