

Presented by:
COL David M. Wilder
Command Surgeon

Army Materiel Command

Office of the Surgeon
Support of Installation
Commanders

June 1999

AMC – Relevant, Responsive & Ready!

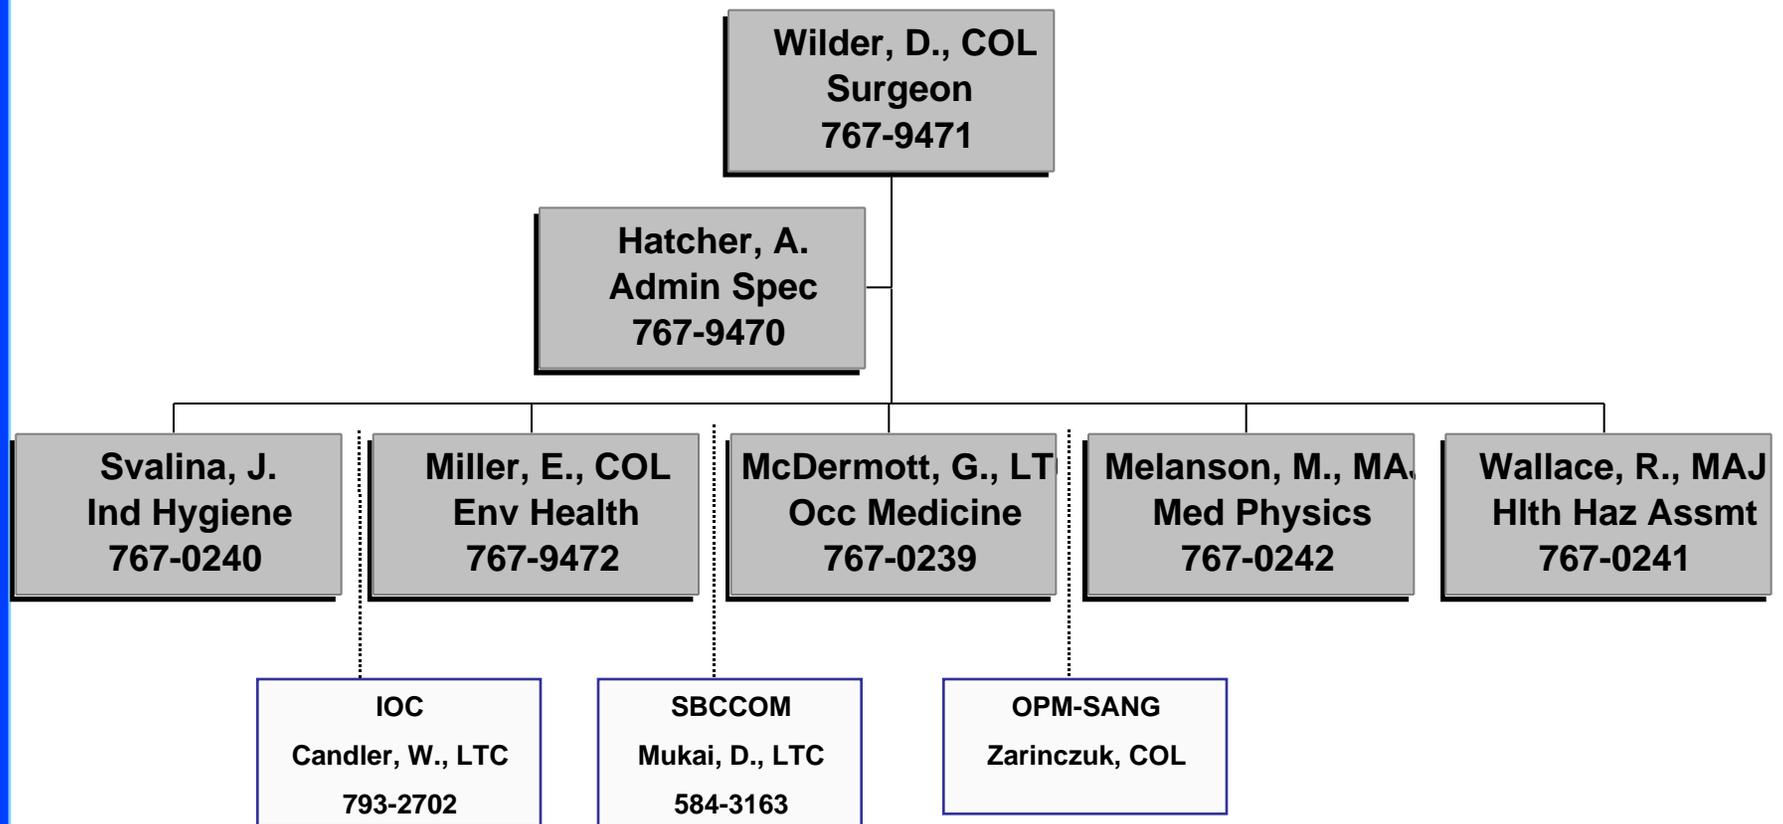

Mission

- Provide policy and technical guidance on all health-related matters.
- Serve as the medical interface between AMC and other agencies
- Advocate for AMC Commander on medical issues

Office of the Surgeon

AMCSG Top Issues/Priorities

- AMC/MEDCOM Occupational Health Partnership
- Medical Care at Remote Locations
- AMEDD Staffing
- DOD Ergonomics Program

AMCSG Top Issues/Priorities Cont.

- Chemical Surety Program
- Medical aspects of deploying civilians and contractors (See AMC Reg No. 690-11)
- Health aspects of radioactive material possession and use
- Health Hazard Assessments in support of Materiel Acquisition Process

Industrial Hygiene (IH)

- Consultation to Installation Commanders
 - ❖ MEDCOM IH personnel
 - ❖ Contractors

- Resolve AMEDD health services support issues

- Improve compliance with OSHA, state and Army regulations

Health Hazard Assessment

- Proponent: Army Surgeon General
- Purpose: Identify/control health hazards associated with new Army materiel
- Goal: Protect soldiers' health & maximize system effectiveness
- AMC Surgeon's Role: MATDEV advocate

Environmental Health

- Corporate level oversight of environmental health services at MSCs
- Environmental Health deployment guidance
- Coordinate policy with OTSG, MEDCOM, CHPPM, and other Federal agencies

Radiation Health Consultant

- Investigate radiation exposure incidents involving AMC personnel/commodities
- Consultant to Army on Radioactive Commodity/system health hazards
- Set and implement radiation health standards and policies
- Manage radiation health support from AMEDD

Resources for Installation Commander

- Clinic Commander (Installation Medical Authority)
- Supporting MEDDAC CDR or MEDCEN Chief, Preventive Medicine
- AMC FECA Case Manager
- MSC Surgeon (IOC, SBCCOM)
- AMC Surgeon's Office