A rmy Contracting Command (ACC), its subordinate organizations and contracting centers enable Army readiness through contracting solutions in support of the Army and Unified Land Operations, anytime, anywhere. As the Army's principal buying agent, ACC ensures Soldiers have what they need to be successful, from food and clothing to bullets and bombs. The command accomplishes its global operational missions with a professional workforce of Soldiers, Department of the Army Civilians, foreign local nationals and contractors at more than 100 locations worldwide.

ACC supports Army readiness by utilizing best practices and expert-level oversight to provide Warfighters with premier contracting support. ACC ensures contracting support of the Soldier as mission requirements emerge and as the Army transforms and operates within the continental U.S. and around the globe.

A combat multiplier, ACC has the capability to deploy anywhere in the world on short notice to provide operation contract support planning, contract policy and oversight, contract execution, contract administration and contract surveillance in support of deployed forces. ACC is doing its part to keep the Army strong and shows the organization's commitment to improving support for the Army, America's allies and those in need of humanitarian support.
